Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

I am pleased to confirm that Ethics and Reputation Society (TEİD) of Istanbul/Turkey supports the ten principles of the UN Global Compact with respect

With this commitment, we express our intent to advance these principles within our sphere of influence, and will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.*

We also pledge to take part in the activities of the UN Global Compact where appropriate and feasible – through, for instance, participation in Country/Local Networks; involvement in specialized initiatives and workstreams; engagement in partnership projects; and reviewing and providing commentary to participating companies on their Communications on Progress.

Tayfun Zaman
Secretary General
To diseminate the Principles of Global Compact, TEID also works with other NGOs. Customs Brokers Declaration of Ethics is the first Collective Action in its field with the participants of the 250 Custom Brokers Association. The participants of this declaration also agree to abide by the TEID’S and Global Compact’s principles.

Customs Brokers has signed the “Customs Brokers Ethical Values Statement” on January 26th International Customs Day with the attendance of Customs and Commerce Minister, Hayati Yazıcı. In addition to the bureaucrats of Customs and Commerce Ministry, representatives of NGOs and moguls of business world were in attendance during the signing ceremony.

95% of the Turkey's foreign trade is carried out through customs brokers; therefore, as their role is significant for the Turkish Economy, any possibility of fraud or corruption may affect the all businesses directly in the Turkish market. With the help of this collaboration, these principles indirectly reach out to most of the importers and exporters in Turkey and increase the awareness towards corruption.

In addition to its commitment to the Global Compact Principles, TEID is also one of the participants of “The Call to Action” which is an appeal by the private sector to governments to promote anti-corruption measures and to implement policies that will establish systems of good governance. “The Call to Action” urges governments to underscore anti-corruption and good governance as fundamental pillars of a sustainable and inclusive global economy.
Global Compact Principles: Anti-Corruption

According to World Bank data, the money paid for bribery in the world each year is more than 1 billion dollars. It is a fact that the existent corruption in the world leads to a 20% increase in cost of business in developing countries’ economies. Therefore, in order to ward off bribery, private sector and the state should work together as it is a common enemy.

As TEID, we are aware of the importance of this situation for our country and for the world, and we are leading many national and international practices to stop corruption.

B20 Anti Corruption Task Force

TEID, was one of the B20 Anti-Corruption Task Force members in G20 Turkey Conference this year. TEID, having taken a big part in work intended for Customs and SMEs, co-wrote “policy papers that include advices on the fight against corruption in the Customs and a specialized toolkit for SMEs“.

These products that were within the B20 Anti-Corruption Task Force are the first products of World SME Forum established this year. Combating Corruption in Customs is also placed in the United Nations Global Compact A Practical Guide for Collective Action Against Corruption.
International Ethics Summit

International Ethics Summit that has been held each year since 2011, has approached many issues such as business ethics, anti-corruption, ethical leadership and has hosted experts of these topics.

- 2011 Affect of the Ethical Management to the Corporate’s Values
- 2012 Changes of Paradigm and Affects to the Ethics Management
- 2013 Affect of the Ethical Management to the Corporate’s Values
- 2014 Ideals and Realities
- 2015 Understanding Today, Inspiring Tomorrow
Turkish Integrity Center of Excellence (TICE) aims to level the playing field by inclusion of the private sector into combatting corruption.

Businesses seldom have appropriate expertise to implement internationally developed anti-corruption and good governance guidelines and standards. Assessment of improvement is hardly possible due to non-existing coherent data regarding socio-economic effects of corruption on leading sectors of the local economy.

Many companies have some sort of ethical standards but what they don't have is a compliance program to turn those standards into the very basis of their written corporate culture. Consequently business ethics remain a soft skill for the companies rather than a value and an asset to be measured, reported and effectively managed. Our vision in this project is to create a cultural change in the Turkish Private Sector and train compliance officers who will effectively manage integrity risks for their companies.

TICE is a platform that will impact the Turkish Business both nationally and internationally in increasing its compliance standards.
We do not only act as a point of reference for the private sector companies assisting them to implant the principles of business ethics but we also work closely with the legislator in the pursuit of a socio-economic environment where companies act in compliance with those principles do not lose their competitiveness but gain advantages.

Education, Trainings and Professional Certification

To produce and deliver courses and online training modules and runs “Compliance Officers Certification Programs” for the education and certification of relevant private sector professionals and produces tools for the use of compliance officers.

Business Ethics Research and Application Center

Aside from these works, TEID also realizes the importance of Academia. With the collaboration of Istanbul Bilgi University, TEID has opened the “Business Ethics Research and Application Center” last February. This center, which will start its studies in a near future, will include certificate programs as well as 2-year programs that will consist of topics of ethics and compliance program, ethical risk management, anti-corruption regulations.
